For your safety and the safety of your pets:

- Keep dogs on a short leash at all times
- Avoid walking pets alone during early morning or late evening hours
- Stay aware of your surroundings
- Do not approach or feed wildlife

Patricia's Corner:
The Heart of Our Home

At the heart of our community is something truly special — the relationships we share with our residents. Every day, we are grateful to be part of the lives of the incredible individuals who make this community feel like home. Your stories, wisdom, laughter, and kindness bring joy, meaning and a true sense of family to our days.

The moments we share together — whether through conversation, celebrations, quiet visits or everyday routines — are what make this community so meaningful. It is a privilege to walk alongside each of you, to learn from you, and to create lasting connections together. Thank you for allowing us to be part of your journey and for the warmth and spirit you bring to our community. You are the heart of this home, and we are grateful for you each and every day.

Juneteenth honors the day freedom finally reached the last enslaved African Americans in 1865. It is a time to reflect on resilience, celebrate culture and community, and recognize the ongoing journey toward equality and unity.
